

Default Question Block

Recognizing that the design fields have a cultural obligation to address injustice and discrimination, the Racial Equity and Anti-Racism Fund exists to raise awareness of how race, racism, and racial injustice affect society (with a focus on the design fields) and promote a culture of anti-racism at the GSD.

First Name

Last Name

Harvard Email

Please select your role at the GSD:

- Faculty
- Researcher
- Staff
- Student

Please indicate any other individuals, student organizations, and/or departments that are collaborating on this proposal.

Did your proposal receive a grant within the last 12 months?

- Yes
- No

Please select the fund cycle you are applying to

- Fall Deadline: Friday - October 2, 2020
- Spring Deadline: Friday - February 5, 2021

Please identify the level of the funding request:

- Individual
- Institutional
- Departmental

Please provide a short description (no more than 300 words) of your funding request:

NOTE: Descriptions that are aligned to the mission and/or strengthen the effectiveness of a GSD course, event, program or policy service, policy, or procedure that promotes a culture of anti-racism; or (2) enable the GSD to more effectively commit to the recruitment and retention of people of color within its community are more likely to be funded.

How will the proposal increase the awareness of race, racism, and/or, racial injustice impact on society (and the design field)?

How will the proposal contribute to a culture of anti-racism at the GSD?

Please share your plan of implementation that includes a detailed timeline and intended outcomes

Total amount requested from the Racial Equity and Anti-Racism Fund:

Itemized budget:

Powered by Qualtrics